WHO SHOULD REGISTER?

This programme is for those who are using or intend to use BPS registered tests as part of their job as HR professionals or as Consultants.

This programme is also useful for people looking for HR or Business Psychology related jobs in the UK, Europe or in the Middle East and want their profile to stand out from the crowd.

In addition to this the programme is very useful for students studying in the UK/Europe and want to make career in HR or Business Psychology

WHAT IS RQTU?

RQTU is a register of qualified people for Psychometric Testing in Educational, Occupational and Forensic settings. This register is maintained by the British Psychological Society (BPS) and people authorized by the BPS (known as 'verified assessors') are delegated the power to evaluate and enter people in the register if they are found to be qualified. Upon entry in to this register, the individual is given a unique registration number and his/her details can be verified online by those who are looking for the services of qualified professionals in psychometric testing.

BENEFITS OF RQTU

RQTU members can access psychological and psychometric tests which would otherwise be restricted, and can also access full BPS Test Reviews to aid test selection.

RQTU Members have exclusive access to issues of ADM and Testing International, e-subscriber membership of the British Psychological Society granting access to the Psychologist magazine, and exclusive discounts on CIPD courses.

Read other membership benefits on BPS Website here:
